

A person wearing a blue costume with a large circular opening at the top and a red, curved, snake-like accessory. They are holding a white sign with both hands. The sign has the title 'A Busy Day For Fish' and the author's name 'Melissa Amalir'. The person is also wearing a green and white striped skirt with a white ruffled hem and white gloves.

A Busy Day For Fish

Melissa Amalir

A Busy Day For Fish

Melissa Amalir

2026

"How do you know I'm mad?"

"You must be, or you wouldn't have come here"

Lewis Carroll

This is fish.

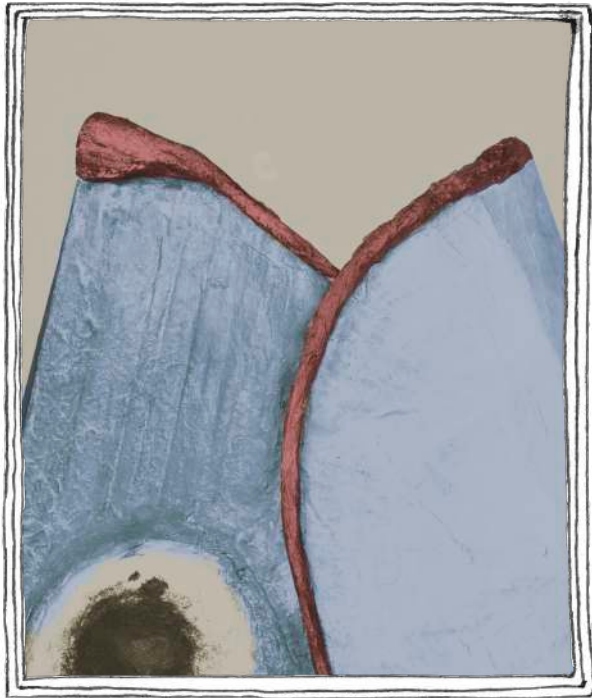

2

Every morning, he gets up and makes his favourite breakfast.

Then, he gets ready for the day. He works for the Queen so he always has to look his best.

Fish is a little bit scared of the queen but he does his best to make her happy.

The Queen is throwing a party today so there are many things to do.

He must make sure that the gardens look their best ...

... and that the flamingoes are properly polished ...

... and he also decides to make the Queen some jam tarts.

They are her favourite.

Then, it is Fish's job to deliver all the invitations.

One of the invitations is for the Duchess, which is where his special friend works.

So he's delivering a personal letter too.

Fish likes Frog very much, so he's always happy for a chance to see him.

But when Fish gets back to work
he is horrified!

Someone has STOLEN all the jam tarts!

The Queen is Not. Best. Pleased.

She decides that there will have to be a trial.

26

But that all ends quite strangely.

It's been such a busy day, Fish is happy to be home again, and he goes straight to bed.

Let's hope he has nice dreams.

Thank you to everyone I've ever met, but especially to Ben, the fish, and Erin, the Queen

